Living Social

The Mission

Open with invitation of the Spirit (prayer/music)

Big Idea: We are to live by faith and to be filled with the Holy Spirit as children of God. Becoming a Christian involves being filled with love, power and hope. All these things are internal. Living social will involve relating to an external world that may be hostile or blind to the faith we hold within. We are the only Bible that they might ever read. Every Christian is a missionary by calling. Wisdom and relational skills are required by all Christians.

Background info:

John 1:2-3 (ESV) On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

Luke 7:36-48 & Luke 19:1-5 (Any version)

Q: What do the above verses show us about Jesus and the world that He was placed in?

2 Corinthians 11:30 (ESV) If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

Q: How can presenting yourself as a perfect person actually isolate us from the world we need to connect with?

A corpse is cold and has no sign of life.

Religious rules and hypocrisy are cold.

Unforgiveness within a person will show that person to be uninviting.

Unbelief is rigid and not open to suggestions.

No matter how much faith, wisdom or power one may have, such a person is nothing without love. (see 1 Corinthians 13)

Q: To be known as a warm and relatable person is to be desired. What are some things that we can put in place so that we might be warm?

All about Jesus:

Q: How did Jesus display warmth to others?
